GF to propose Jean-Christophe Deslarzes as new Board member

The Board of Directors of GF will propose Jean-Christophe Deslarzes for election to its Board at the next Annual Shareholders' Meeting of April 2027.

Jean-Christophe Deslarzes (63), a Swiss citizen, is currently Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Adecco Group (Switzerland) and Constellium (France, listed in the US). He has a strong track record in his executive and non-executive career in transformations, manufacturing and human resources (HR). Jean-Christophe Deslarzes spent part of his executive career in the aluminum industry at Alusuisse and its successor companies Alcan and Rio Tinto, where he held major HR and operational positions, including Chief HR Officer and member of the Executive Committee of Alcan and later President and CEO of Rio Tinto's Downstream Aluminum Businesses (Canada). Subsequently, he became Chief HR Officer and member of the Executive Committees at Carrefour (France) and then ABB (Switzerland).

Yves Serra, Chairman of the Board of Directors of GF, comments: "Jean-Christophe Deslarzes has had an impressive international career in major companies in Switzerland, Canada and France. He is certainly well-versed in all strategic, operational, HR as well as corporate governance matters. We are delighted to propose him as member of our Board."
